

About Kinside

BRI and Kinside have partnered to help parents find open child care spaces and save up to 30% on their annual tuition costs, reducing the fiscal and tactical burden of child care on their families. Kinside's easy-to-use platform enables parents to enter their specific childcare needs, from start date, to budget and location. Kinside shows current and future openings at programs near them and pre-negotiated rates at over 20,000 child care providers.

Features

Nationwide Network

Kinside's national network allows working parents to browse open spots at child care programs near them and filter based on the criteria that matters most to their family.

Support

Kinside's expertly trained support team can offer individual support to parents and assist in gathering up-to-date availability and tour times at any licensed provider in the U.S.

Seamless Payments

Putting DCFSA funds to work has never been easier. Parents can find any provider on Kinside's platform and pay using their BRI pre-tax debit card, ACH or a blend of multiple payment methods.

Pre-negotiated Rates

Kinside parents save hundreds of dollars on care every month at partner programs all across the country. Access to preferred rates at over 20,000 providers.

Onboard your Employer

1

Information

Schedule your onboarding meeting by emailing onboarding@kinside.com with the subject line BRI Employer.

2

Access

BRI companies receive free access to Kinside's platform. Employees can sign up at www.kinside.com/bri

3

Tools

Kinside will provide a launch checklist and materials to help your HR team and working parents make the most out of your Kinside access.